

CHRISTMAS

And only 20 days in which to do your shopping

We have a lot of new articles in the Colonial Glassware.

Beautiful China, Handkerchiefs, Neckwear, Arm Bands, Suspenders, Aprons, Collar and Cuff Bags, Smokers' Sets, Manicure Sets, Dolls, Toys, Games, Books for little folks and big folks, in fact we have something for every member of the family. Please call and inspect the goods, we are confident that we can please you.

Pictorial Review Patterns for January now on sale

H. G. PERLEY

Post Office Square, BARTON, VERMONT

Now Is the Time to Buy Cotton

81 in. Lockwood Bleached Sheeting	25c yd
40 " " Unbleached Sheeting	22c
36 " " " "	8c
36 " " " "	7c
40 " Bleached Sheeting	8c, 10c, 12c
42 " " Pillow Tubing	15c
42 " " " "	16c
45 " " " "	18c

The above are single yard prices. Full webs at less price

HOYT & HOYT

Beede Block, ORLEANS, VT.

RIVERSIDE MARKET, Glover, Vermont

I want to say to the public we are here to do business. Give us a try. Here are a few of our prices—

Best U. S. Hub Brand Rubber Boots	$4.00
Rubbers for leggings 10 inches high	3.00
" " " " " 2 buckles	2.75
" " " " " " "	2.60
4 buckle cloth Overshoes	2.50
A good Warranted Axe	.85
Blue Ribbon Flour 49 lb bag	1.75
Best N. Y. State Cheese 1b	.20
Lard Compound	.12
Pure Lard, home rendered	.15
Salt Pork, home or western	.14

Highest market price paid for dairy butter, eggs and beef hides. Hides today are 13 to 15 cts per lb. Calfskins 85c to $1.25. A full line of Fresh Groceries and Candy always on hand.

The celebrated Woods Gilt Edge Coffee better than the best at 35c. Also a good Coffee for 25c. Gasoline and Greases for Gearings.

O. G. MILES, - Glover, Vt.

Our terms are strictly in advance. When your time is up the paper stops

EXTRAORDINARY TEN-DAYS' SALE

Entire stock of Millinery at greatly reduced prices to assure quick sale to make room for new stock

SPECIAL SALE OF TRIMMED HATS
$3.00, 5.00 to 8.00 Hats
Now 1.98, 3.00 and 4.00

Also LIBERAL DISCOUNT on all Millinery Trimmings and Untrimmed Hats

Come now and get first choice

Furs remodelled and Waifs reined

MRS. VERCOE
Opposite Post Office
BARTON - VERMONT

MOVING PICTURE TICKETS

Are Given Away with your Cash Purchases

At the Following Stores

C. A. Barrows & Son, Barton
C. A. Nute, Barton
Hutchins Jewelry, Barton
Hutchins Millinery, Barton
Currier Brothers, Orleans

Accepted at Gem Theatre

At Barton and Orleans

Movie Trading Stamp Co.,
Newport, Vermont

FOR SALE

40 Choice New Milch

COWS

At our stables on the meadow near Orleans

Taplin & Rowell

Orleans, Vermont

THE GREENSBOROS

GREENSBORO

George Marshall reports a ten point buck killed in Westmore last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dow entertained 25 relatives and friends at Thanksgiving dinner.

The Ladies' Missionary society will meet this week Friday at the home of Mrs. Alden Perrin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lazott of Nashua, N. H., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Bates.

Erace Buchanan of U. V. M., is spending his Thanksgiving vacation with his brother, R. O. Buchanan.

Miss Maud Lewis of East Hardwick was a Thanksgiving day guest at the home of Mrs. Hattie K. Silver.

Winona Rowell, clerk in Cuthbertson's store, spent several days this week visiting her parents in East Hardwick.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barr of Cabot were guests over Thanksgiving at the home of Mr. Barr's sister, Mrs. John Barrington.

Will Thompson, who has been ill at his home in Craftsbury for several weeks, is back at his work in B. M. Willey's store.

Mrs. Della Babcock, who has been ill for some time at her home in South Walden, has returned to the home of George Cuthbertson.

Among those home for Thanksgiving were Miss Alida and Mildred Fairbanks from Craftsbury academy and Norman Dufur from Morrisville high school.

Among those reported to have shot deer in this town are Walter Garvin, Roy Young, Alton White, Ted Calley, Raymond Silver, Dave Spier and John Lumsden.

The Grange held a postponed meeting Tuesday evening and elected officers for the coming year. The third and fourth degrees were worked on a class of four by the ladies' degree team.

This year we are to have a community Christmas tree in the town hall. The public school teachers have been appointed a committee to prepare a program for the occasion. The exact date has not as yet been decided upon.

The people of his community are looking forward to the coming of the next lecture in our course with unusual interest. The lecture will be by L. B. Wickersham, who gave one of his lectures here last year and was very well liked.

The subject for the C. E. meeting Sunday evening will be "Golden Fruit from the Prayer Life," leader, J. B. Harriman. The subject for the Junior meeting at 6:15, "A Man Who Boasted," and the meeting will be led by the music committee.

Mrs. Robert Buchanan of West Glover gave a report of the Woman's Board meeting of the Congregational churches recently held at Burlington Nov. 10-12 before the C. E. society of the Congregational church Sunday evening. There was a good attendance.

A party of 70 gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Cassevah Friday evening to help them celebrate their 20th wedding anniversary. After congratulations from the company, a program of music and readings was given in which the following participated: Misses Fairbanks, Miss Stella Goodrich, Mrs. Will Bates, Mrs. John Lazott, C. H. Miller. Various presents and a sum of money were presented to the honored couple as an expression of esteem.

The following officers were elected by the C. E. society for the next term: President, Miss Martha Patterson; vice-president, Will Anderson; secretary and treasurer, Walter Urie.

The pupils of the village school gave an interesting program of exercises and a little play Wednesday afternoon when the school closed for the Thanksgiving recess. Miss Perkins, the teacher, spent the recess with friends at North Craftsbury.

EAST CRAFTSBURY
Mrs. Graham White of Pittsfield, Mass., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Spaulding of Boston are visiting at Fred Sizer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slicer are smiling over a new daughter named Goldie Mabel.

Miss Barbara Fletcher of Albany visited her sister, Mrs. John Griffith, last week.

Miss Ruth Heider has gone to Orleans to teach the primary department in the school here.

Miss Mary Simpson of Morrisville and my faculty spent Thanksgiving with her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bailey of St. Johnsbury spent Thanksgiving and the week-end at his old home here.

Paul Harriman has resigned his position in the office of the state industrial school at Vergennes and is visiting his parents here.

Miss Nora Richardson was called to her home at South Albany Saturday by the death of her little sister, who was accidentally shot.

Mr. and Mrs. James White and M. and Mrs. Alton White spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young at West Glover.

Miss Martha Patterson, Mary, Myrtle and Maude Bailey were among the teachers who spent the Thanksgiving vacation at their homes here.

J. W. Simpson and daughter, Jean, and Miss Grant of New York City arrived Thanksgiving day and remained over until Tuesday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Elvora went to St. Johnsbury to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Anderson. They returned Monday.

The C. E. society gave a social in the church vestry Friday evening. The attendance was not very large but a splendid time was the portion of those who were present.

GREENSBORO BEND

Robert Ritchie has been appointed town grand juror.

C. B. Sternburg has purchased a new Ford automobile.

E. J. Sherry shot a deer near D. G. McFarlane's Wednesday.

R. A. Ritchie was in Walcott and Morrisville on business Saturday.

Mrs. Georgiana Garfield is stopping with her sister, Mrs. R. J. Shurtleff.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Chamberlin spent Thanksgiving in St. Johnsbury with their son, George Chamberlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Collins of Lyndon spent Thanksgiving with Mr. Collins's father, L. S. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Blanchette attended the wedding of their son, Archie, to Marie C. Marcoux in St. Johnsbury on Wednesday. Congratulations.

Bernard and Leslie Daniels of St. Johnsbury spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Daniels.

At a village meeting in Hardwick Friday it was voted to furnish East Hardwick, Greensboro Bend, Greensboro village and Craftsbury with electric light and to commence work at once. It is thought that this village will be lighted by Dec. 20th.

Friday night as Mrs. E. R. Collins and son, Harold, and Miss Abbie Flanders were returning from Hardwick, when passing over the north end of the covered bridge they met near the Timothy Bronson place Dr. Caster of Hardwick. Neither party saw the other until the wheels clashed. All three occupants of the Collins team were thrown out, the horse freed himself from the carriage and was caught badly injured, being bruised about the body and one ankle badly sprained. Miss Flanders and Harold escaped with bruises. The doctor was uninjured. The Collins carriage was badly damaged and the horse badly cut.

GREENSBORO NO. NEIGHBORHOOD
D. G. Speir and family spent Saturday at Hardwick.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gebbie and little Gladys Philbrook are on the sick list.

Will Thompson has recovered from his illness and returned to his work at B. M. Willey's.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spiers and family spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gebbie.

Bertram Allen and bride have returned to Plymouth, N. H., after spending a week in town.

The Craftsbury students returned to school Monday after spending the Thanksgiving recess at their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gebbie entertained a party of fifteen and Mr. and Mrs. Young a party of eleven for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. George Philbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Philbrook and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Philbrook and family were at Fernbrook's in Hardwick for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cassevah were pleasantly surprised Friday evening when about 70 of their friends came to remind them of their twentieth wedding anniversary. Refreshments were served and a sum of money besides other gifts were left as a remembrance of a pleasant evening.

THE THREE CRAFTSBURYS

CRAFTSBURY

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Spaulding of Franklin, Mass., after an absence of ten years, visited relatives and friends in this town last week.

EAST CRAFTSBURY
Mrs. Graham White of Pittsfield, Mass., is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dell Spaulding of Boston are visiting at Fred Sizer's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slicer are smiling over a new daughter named Goldie Mabel.

Miss Barbara Fletcher of Albany visited her sister, Mrs. John Griffith, last week.

Miss Ruth Heider has gone to Orleans to teach the primary department in the school here.

Miss Mary Simpson of Morrisville and my faculty spent Thanksgiving with her mother here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bailey of St. Johnsbury spent Thanksgiving and the week-end at his old home here.

Paul Harriman has resigned his position in the office of the state industrial school at Vergennes and is visiting his parents here.

Miss Nora Richardson was called to her home at South Albany Saturday by the death of her little sister, who was accidentally shot.

Mr. and Mrs. James White and M. and Mrs. Alton White spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Young at West Glover.

Miss Martha Patterson, Mary, Myrtle and Maude Bailey were among the teachers who spent the Thanksgiving vacation at their homes here.

J. W. Simpson and daughter, Jean, and Miss Grant of New York City arrived Thanksgiving day and remained over until Tuesday with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Elvora went to St. Johnsbury to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Anderson. They returned Monday.

The C. E. society gave a social in the church vestry Friday evening. The attendance was not very large but a splendid time was the portion of those who were present.

GLOVER GLEANINGS

GLOVER

Miss Mamie McDuffee is recovering. A drach Alexander is sick with scarlet fever.

O. G. Miles has moved into his new street home.

Mrs. Edith Alrich is visiting her son at Derby.

Glover schools will begin the winter term Monday, Dec. 6.

Dr. Buck spent Thanksgiving with friends at Montpelier.

Mrs. Annie Smith and family have moved to St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Ruth Paddenford is home from her visit to Whittan, Mass.

Edwin Alexander spent several days last week hunting in Holland.

Miss Jennie Young of Orleans visited at the Misses Budgett's recent v.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pierce and daughter of Orleans spent Sunday with Mrs. Dow.

John Arthur has moved into his home recently purchased of O. G. Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cook from Lyndonville spent Thanksgiving at H. H. Cook's.

Miss Hazel Cook and Miss Alice Dexter spent Thanksgiving in Burlington.

Fred and Alex Smith have gone to work in the Fairbanks shops at St. Johnsbury.

The regular monthly social and dinner by the Woman's Union will be held Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leavitt of Augusta, Maine, visited at E. G. Ford's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Drew attended the funeral of Mrs. James King at Barton Monday.

Mrs. James Walker picked a nice bouquet of pansies on Friday and another on Sunday.

F. E. Simpson shipped a milking Shorthorn to parties in Massachusetts the first of the week.

Mrs. Emily Gale, who has been living here with Mrs. Villa R. ch for several months, has gone home.

Mrs. Homer Kirby of Hyde Park is in town assisting her parents in getting settled in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Drew and daughter Hortense have been visiting relatives at Ayer's Cliff, Quebec.

Mrs. M. C. Garfield and Miss Lillian and Master Frank of St. Johnsbury spent the week-end at N. A. Smith's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hastings of daughter, Mrs. Weeden and daughter of Bellows Falls spent Thanksgiving with them.

ALL THE ALBANYNS

ALBANY

Dale Annis was home from Craftsbury the last of the week.

Wayne Sanders was home from Orleans for Thanksgiving.

J. B. Rogers of Burlington is visiting at George Lawrence's.

Stephen Newton spent Thanksgiving with friends in Craftsbury.

May Miles was home from Johnson for the Thanksgiving recess.

Mrs. Charles Smith is visiting at Carl Whiteher's in Hardwick.

Guy Hilliard spent the last of the week with friends in Brownings.

The winter term of the Albany school will begin Tuesday, Dec. 7th.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton George spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Eden.

Doris Sanders is home from Montpelier seminary for the Thanksgiving recess.

Mrs. Finn and Dorcas spent Thanksgiving with the former's parents in Lowell.

Rev. I. P. Chase attended the funeral of Elsie Richardson at South Albany Monday.

Nellie Richardson was called to South Albany Saturday by the death of her sister.

Mrs. Fred Chase of St. Johnsbury is spending the week with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Fletcher.

Rev. and Mrs. I. P. Chase spent Thanksgiving with her brother, J. G. Turnbull, at Orleans.

Will Whittemore, Charles Stewart and Clayton George were home from Barnet the last of the week.

EAST ALBANY

Amby Bowen was one of the fortunate ones in capturing a two-hundred and fifty-pound buck last week.

SOUTH ALBANY

Mrs. Andrew McGuire of Albany is visiting at Will Courser's.

Mrs. Belle Rowell and H. D. Rowell were at O. M. Rowell's Thursday.

Miss Edna Rowell visited her friend, Miss Alice Young, one day last week.

Mrs. Belle Rowell was the guest of Mrs. Clyde Eldridge of East Albany Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Williams spent Thanksgiving at H. D. Phillips's in Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Simpson were called to Lyndon recently to attend the funeral of J. E. Simpson, Mr. Simpson's father.

Frank Drew and family, Martin Bean and family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Adrich and Mrs. Sarah Drew spent Thanksgiving at L. L. Drew's at West Derby.

Geo. P. Dunn and Mr. Johnson from Maine were in town Saturday inspecting the stock of F. E. Simpson with a view to purchasing. Mr. Dunn has purchased stock of Mr. Simpson before.

A lecture course is being arranged for if enough tickets can be sold to guarantee expenses. Our lecture course in the past have been helpful and entertaining and the price is very reasonable. It is hoped it will be well supported.

Oswar and Clyde Wheeler have taken possession of the Wyllie farm recently purchased. Arthur Wyllie has stored his household goods and will spend some time at his mother's. Miss Minnie Wyllie was at her brother's several days assisting in moving.

GLOVER COMMUNITY CHURCH
The J. O. U. M. and the D. of L. orders attended church on Sunday for their annual Thanksgiving sermon. The sermon was on true blessedness from the Sermon on the Mount with both general and individual applications.

Sunday evening the Biblical character taken up was Lot, escaping from Sodom "by the skin of his teeth." This was the second of the messages from men of old time to men of the new.

The cottage meeting this week was held with Mrs. Amy Bartlett.

Thursday evening prayer meeting topic is the abiding chapter, John 15. Sunday evening subject will be "A Pilgrim of Faith."

WEST GLOVER
Bruce Buchanan from U. V. M., was home for Thanksgiving.

The successful hunters of this village were John Borland and Clyde Barber.

David and Ann Barber entertained relatives and friends Thanksgiving day.

W. O. King, who was badly hurt by being thrown from his wagon, is slowly improving.

Mrs. R. W. Buchanan gave a good report of the missionary meeting at Burlington Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Magoon and children spent Thanksgiving with their sister, Mrs. Alice Laciari, in Sheffield.

Maurice Leland of Dartmouth and Harley Leland of Lyndon Institute spent Thanksgiving at their home here, returning to their schools Monday.

Roland Ames is still confined to the house. His friends hope he will be able to be out soon.

Mrs. George Anderson, who has been visiting her mother in Charleston, returned home Friday.

Miss Katherine Miller of Newport has been spending the past week with her mother, Mrs. Henry Magoon.

Joshua Farwell of Claremont, N. H., spent several days last week with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Will Courser.

Miss Mary Wilson, who has been visiting relatives in Greensboro, is back at her work at Richard Kendrick's.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chase of St. Johnsbury spent Thursday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams.

Among those who entertained Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Urie and Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Anderson.

Mrs. Hattie McGuire, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. George B. Stone of Brownington, has returned to James G. Martin's.

Mrs. P. W. Davison and daughter, Alice, of Craftsbury have been spending the week end with Mrs. Belle Rowell and Mrs. O. M. Rowell.

Mrs. D. R. Cobb is spending a little time with her daughter, Mrs. W. N. Potter, while Miss Viola Cobb is in Derby, closing up her rooms for the winter.

Mrs. George Anderson has received the sad news of the death of her brother, Prentiss George. The remains are being brought from Wisconsin and the burial will be in Glover. Mr. George will be remembered by many here as he lived with his sister, Mrs. Anderson, a few years ago.

FATAL ACCIDENT WITH LOADED GUN.
A serious and fatal accident occurred Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Richardson, near South Albany, when their daughter, Elsie, was accidentally shot. Elsie, with her two younger sisters had been playing upstairs and as Elsie came down the stairs, in some way she hit a rifle that was hanging in the hall and it discharged, the bullet passing through her chest and killing her almost instantly. Surely hers was an untimely death and much sympathy is tendered the bereaved ones. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church Monday at 1 o'clock, the Rev. I. P. Chase of Albany officiating. Elsie was eight years of age and will be missed in the home and by her schoolmates. We commend the sorrowing family to the Father, who said, "I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you."

Brotherly Love.
Brotherly love is vital, not mechanical. How refreshing is the dew! It gives new life and verdure to all it touches. Brotherly love is independent of organizations, it is independent of all social mechanisms.—Doctor Thomas.